RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL

Dear Mr. Jordan:

Recently, the Dooley for Congress campaign committee received your letter regarding case MUR 4985, a complaint filed by a Mr. Jamerson.

With respect to the contributions from McCullough for Prosecutor, Shalowitz for State Senate, and Citizens for Buzz Westfall II the contributions in each case were allowable under federal law.

With respect to the employer and occupation for Dennis Ryll the campaign made it's best efforts to collect this information on Mr. Ryll, but did not have the information at the time the report was due. Subsequently, we have received the information for Mr. Ryll and will amend the report in question to reflect that. Mr. Ryll is self-employed as a real estate developer. The campaign also made it's best efforts to get the concomitant information regarding Mr. Ted Dettmer, but has not received that information and therefore could not report it. Please find enclosed a copy of the return envelope Dooley for Congress uses which clearly states that "Federal law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation, and employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200.00 per calendar year." Dooley for Congress includes a similar notation on other fundraising communications as well.

With respect to the designation of contributions by Dianne Ryll a simple clerical error was made entering the information into the computer. The notation should have indicated that Ms. Ryll attributed $1000 for the primary election and Ms. Ryll attributed the other $1000 contribution for the general election. The campaign apologizes for the error, but is pleased to have it brought to our attention so that the report may be amended to reflect the designation Ms. Ryll made for those contributions. Accordingly, the contributions she made are allowable under the law.

With respect to the contribution made by the Normandy Township Regular Democratic Club, the contribution made by the club was allowable under the law.

I hope this sufficiently answers the questions raised in MUR 4985. Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact the campaign at the phone number above.

Sincerely,

Everett Ballard
